HE SAID THAT HE WOULD DO IT AND HE DID!

DEDICATED TO CAPT. CHAS A. LINDBERGH

BY W.H.PEASE

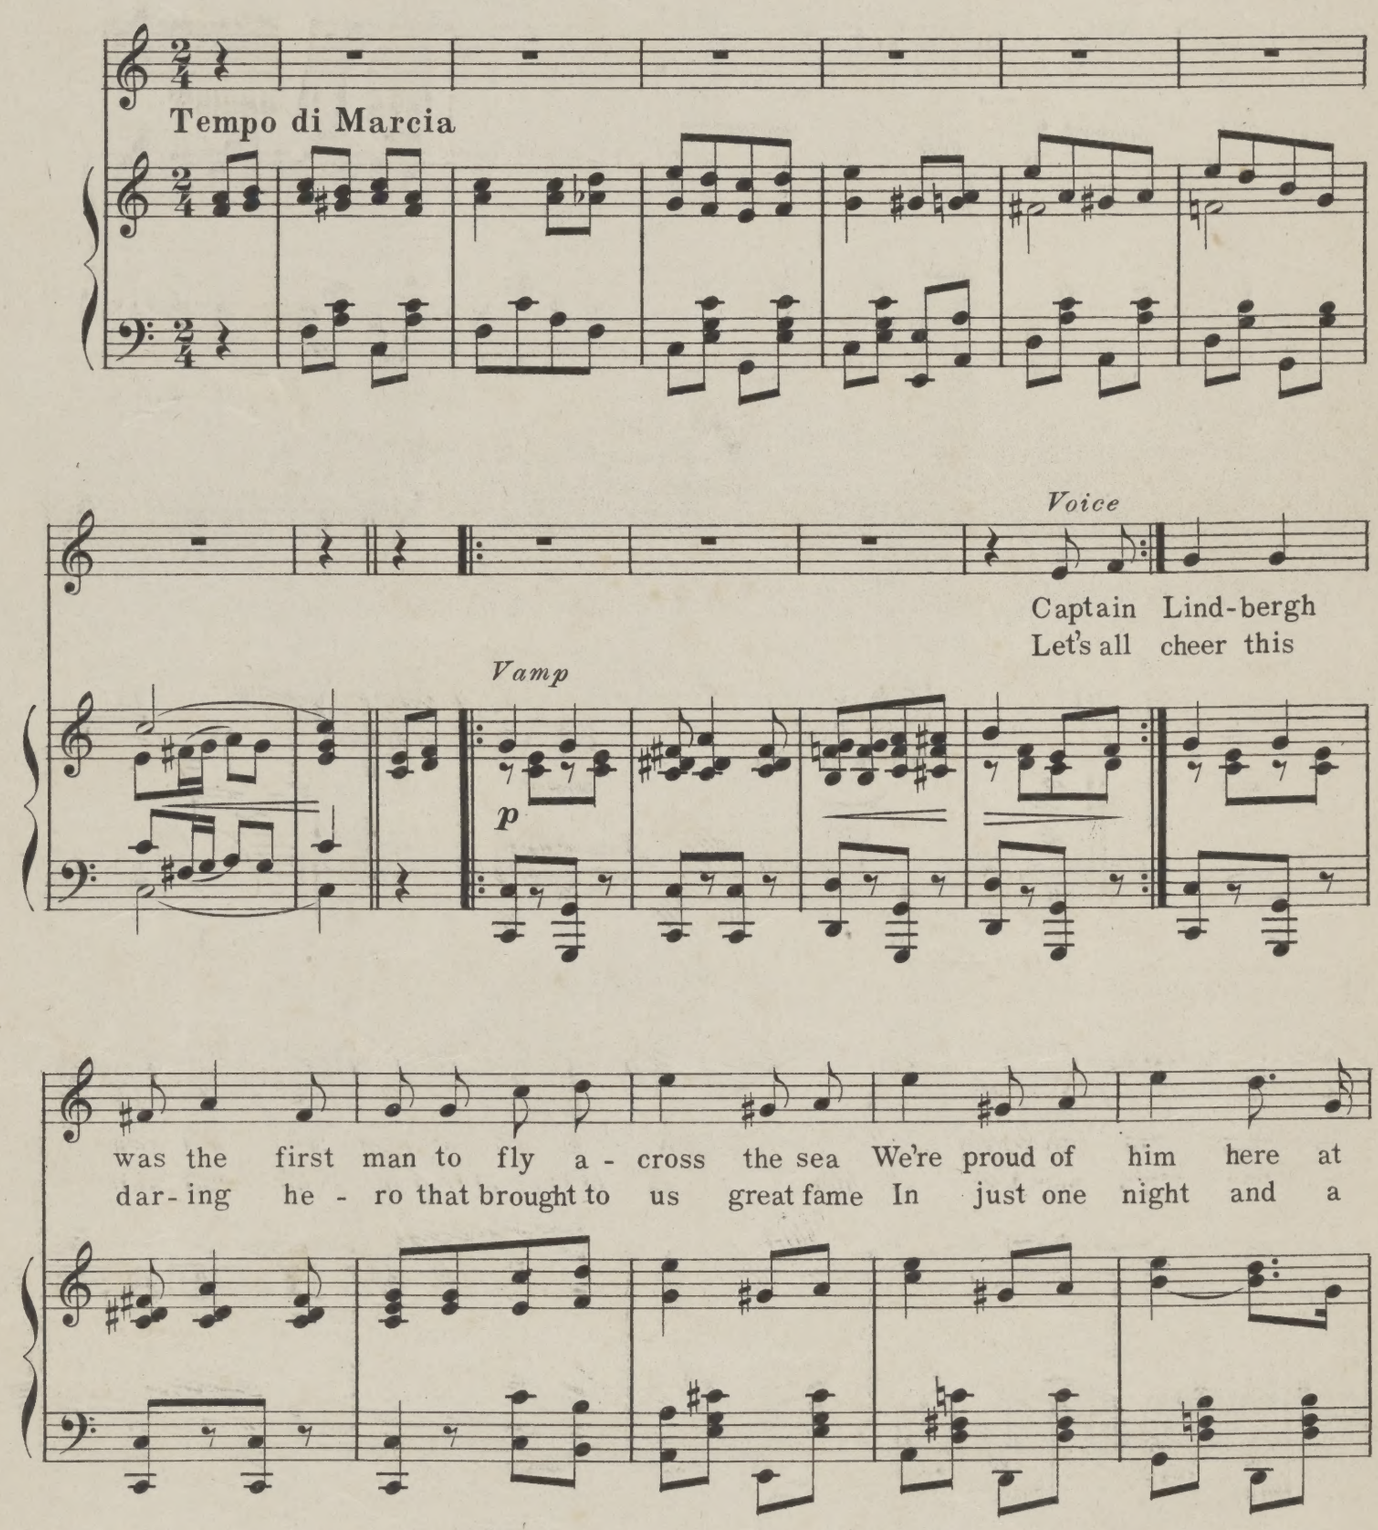
THE SONG RECORD PUBLISHING & DEMONSTRATING COMPANY.
NEW YORK & MT. VERNON

PRINTED IN THE U. S. A.

Dedicated to Capt. Charles A. Lindbergh

He Said That He Would Do It And He Did

Words & Music by
W. HENRY PEASE



Tempo di Marcia
Voice
Captain Lind-bergh
Let's all cheer this Vamp p was the first man to fly a - cross the sea We're proud of him here at dar-ing he - ro that brought to us great fame In just one night and a Copyright 1927 by W. H. Pease. N.Y.

home The French-man did yell when to the earth day While we were pray-ing Char-lie kept on he fell on to that great air dome Lind-bergh's say-ing it's for the U. S. A. A-mer-in spir - a-tion was the shin - ing goal As he ica will cheer him for all the time to come For his soared thro' that long night This youth sin-gle hand-ed in Par - is wild flight o'er the foam You are our great-est Ace for you fin-safe-ly land-ed The Saint Louis made the worlds great-est flight.

ished in first place How we will cheer you when you get back home.
Chorus
Our Char-lie sure was pluck-y and he was might-y luck-y, That he p–f safe-ly land-ed on the old French shore They greet-ed him with cheers ming-led with joys and tears, The French-man yelled A-mer-ica ev-er-more He was hung-ry cold and wear- y But the French soon made him chee- ry How they all did hug and kiss our kid The goods he did de-liver in his lit - tle home made fliv - er For Char - lie said he could 1

2
do it and he did. did.

TRY THIS OVER ON YOUR PIANO

As The Rose Kissed The Lily Good-Night.

Lyric by JAMES WELLS.

Music by WALTER J. POND.

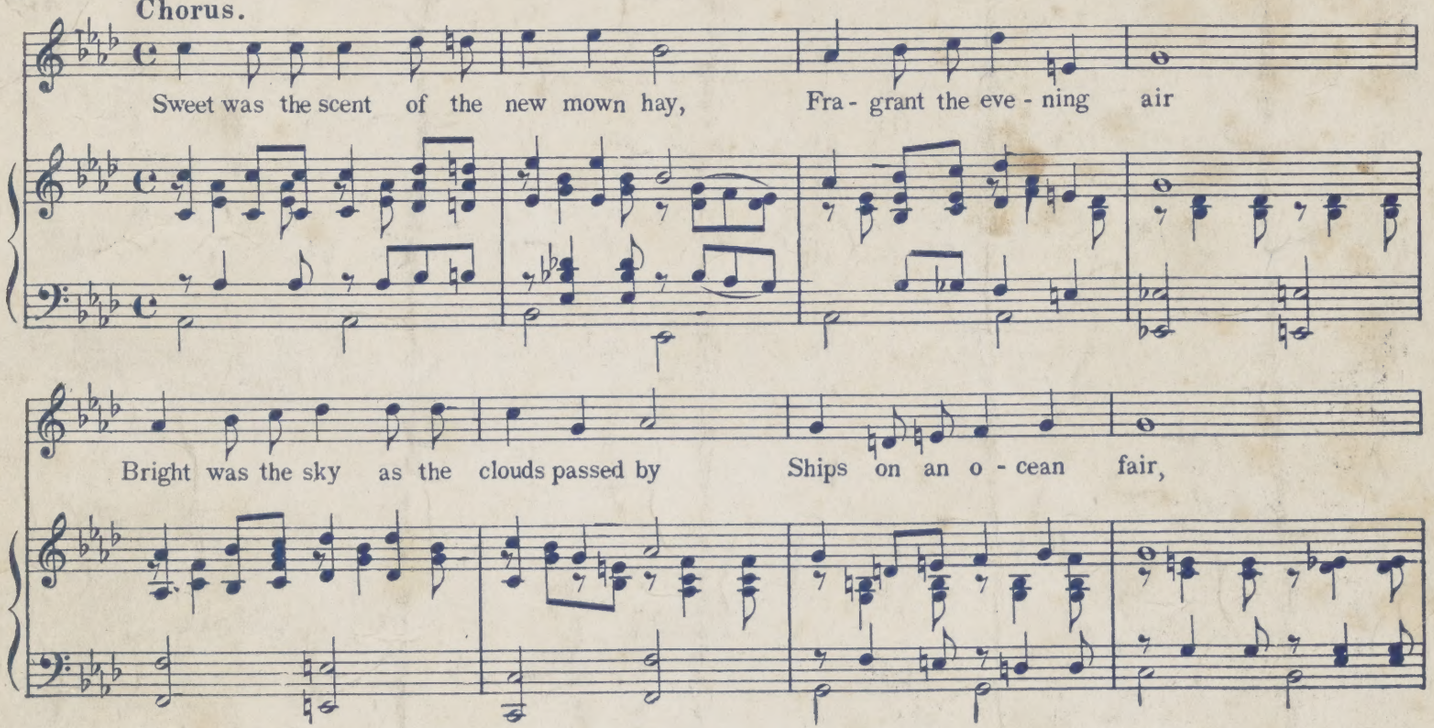
Chorus.



Sweet was the scent of the new mown hay, Fra - grant the eve - ning air
Bright was the sky as the clouds passed by Ships on an o - cean fair, Copyright 1927 by Song Record Publishing Co., Mt. Vernon, New York.

All Rights Reserved.

PRICE 15 CENTS

MAIL ORDER DEPARTMENT

16 So. 4th AVENUE

MT. VERNON, N. Y.

For Sale by All Dealers